

SPOTLIGHT on...

what the Church is doing
to prevent abuse.

Since 2002, the Catholic Church in the United States has made a renewed commitment to the prevention of child sexual abuse and the healing of individuals harmed by abuse. Over 4.4 million children have been educated in signs of abusive relationships and how to seek help. Almost 2 million adults have been trained in recognizing and reporting abuse. Catholic institutions across the country are dedicated to creating safe environments for children and providing assistance to victims. To learn more about what the Church is doing or to seek help go to:

[http://child.gidiocese.org/
VictimAssistance](http://child.gidiocese.org/VictimAssistance)

Diocese of Grand Island
Child Protection
Office

SPOTLIGHT on...

what the Church is doing
to prevent abuse.

Since 2002, the Catholic Church in the United States has made a renewed commitment to the prevention of child sexual abuse and the healing of individuals harmed by abuse. Over 4.4 million children have been educated in signs of abusive relationships and how to seek help. Almost 2 million adults have been trained in recognizing and reporting abuse. Catholic institutions across the country are dedicated to creating safe environments for children and providing assistance to victims. To learn more about what the Church is doing or to seek help go to:

[http://child.gidiocese.org/
VictimAssistance](http://child.gidiocese.org/VictimAssistance)

Diocese of Grand Island
Child Protection
Office

SPOTLIGHT on...

what the Church is doing
to prevent abuse.

Since 2002, the Catholic Church in the United States has made a renewed commitment to the prevention of child sexual abuse and the healing of individuals harmed by abuse. Over 4.4 million children have been educated in signs of abusive relationships and how to seek help. Almost 2 million adults have been trained in recognizing and reporting abuse. Catholic institutions across the country are dedicated to creating safe environments for children and providing assistance to victims. To learn more about what the Church is doing or to seek help go to:

[http://child.gidiocese.org/
VictimAssistance](http://child.gidiocese.org/VictimAssistance)

Diocese of Grand Island
Child Protection
Office

SPOTLIGHT on...

what the Church is doing
to prevent abuse.

Since 2002, the Catholic Church in the United States has made a renewed commitment to the prevention of child sexual abuse and the healing of individuals harmed by abuse. Over 4.4 million children have been educated in signs of abusive relationships and how to seek help. Almost 2 million adults have been trained in recognizing and reporting abuse. Catholic institutions across the country are dedicated to creating safe environments for children and providing assistance to victims. To learn more about what the Church is doing or to seek help go to:

[http://child.gidiocese.org/
VictimAssistance](http://child.gidiocese.org/VictimAssistance)

Diocese of Grand Island
Child Protection
Office

Did you know?

- The Diocese of Grand Island is the regional area of the Roman Catholic Church that extends from Grand Island west, north of the Platte River.
- The Diocese of Grand Island has specific policies regarding the protection of children and youth, including a code of conduct that guides adult interactions with children and youth
- The Diocese of Grand Island screens all adult staff and volunteers who have regular contact with children / youth.
- Since 2002, the Diocese of Grand Island has trained over 7800 staff and volunteers in safe environment strategies, signs of abuse and reporting of abuse.
- Each year the Diocese of Grand Island educates over 5000 children and youth in signs of right relationships and how to seek help if a relationship isn't right.
- The Diocese of Grand Island has Victim Assistance Coordinators available across the diocese to serve as a point of contact with the Church and resource for individuals who have experienced abuse.

For more information contact: Diocese of Grand Island Child Protection Office
(308)382-6565 OR cpo@gidiocese.org

Did you know?

- The Diocese of Grand Island is the regional area of the Roman Catholic Church that extends from Grand Island west, north of the Platte River.
- The Diocese of Grand Island has specific policies regarding the protection of children and youth, including a code of conduct that guides adult interactions with children and youth
- The Diocese of Grand Island screens all adult staff and volunteers who have regular contact with children / youth.
- Since 2002, the Diocese of Grand Island has trained over 7800 staff and volunteers in safe environment strategies, signs of abuse and reporting of abuse.
- Each year the Diocese of Grand Island educates over 5000 children and youth in signs of right relationships and how to seek help if a relationship isn't right.
- The Diocese of Grand Island has Victim Assistance Coordinators available across the diocese to serve as a point of contact with the Church and resource for individuals who have experienced abuse.

For more information contact: Diocese of Grand Island Child Protection Office
(308)382-6565 OR cpo@gidiocese.org

Did you know?

- The Diocese of Grand Island is the regional area of the Roman Catholic Church that extends from Grand Island west, north of the Platte River.
- The Diocese of Grand Island has specific policies regarding the protection of children and youth, including a code of conduct that guides adult interactions with children and youth
- The Diocese of Grand Island screens all adult staff and volunteers who have regular contact with children / youth.
- Since 2002, the Diocese of Grand Island has trained over 7800 staff and volunteers in safe environment strategies, signs of abuse and reporting of abuse.
- Each year the Diocese of Grand Island educates over 5000 children and youth in signs of right relationships and how to seek help if a relationship isn't right.
- The Diocese of Grand Island has Victim Assistance Coordinators available across the diocese to serve as a point of contact with the Church and resource for individuals who have experienced abuse.

For more information contact: Diocese of Grand Island Child Protection Office
(308)382-6565 OR cpo@gidiocese.org

Did you know?

- The Diocese of Grand Island is the regional area of the Roman Catholic Church that extends from Grand Island west, north of the Platte River.
- The Diocese of Grand Island has specific policies regarding the protection of children and youth, including a code of conduct that guides adult interactions with children and youth
- The Diocese of Grand Island screens all adult staff and volunteers who have regular contact with children / youth.
- Since 2002, the Diocese of Grand Island has trained over 7800 staff and volunteers in safe environment strategies, signs of abuse and reporting of abuse.
- Each year the Diocese of Grand Island educates over 5000 children and youth in signs of right relationships and how to seek help if a relationship isn't right.
- The Diocese of Grand Island has Victim Assistance Coordinators available across the diocese to serve as a point of contact with the Church and resource for individuals who have experienced abuse.

For more information contact: Diocese of Grand Island Child Protection Office
(308)382-6565 OR cpo@gidiocese.org